THE EDITOR'S CAMPAIGN.

The editor of the Palatka News is a candidate for Representative in the Leg-board and requested an allowance on lalature from this (Putnam) county, but he does not propose to fill his paper with matter, the object of which is to boost his own candidacy, or take advantage of any privilege not enjoyed by vantage of any privilege not enjoyed by other candidates not so fortunate as to have command of a newspaper.

The editor of the News has always regarded himself as a good fellow; he pleads guilty to being sufficiently vain to enjoy reading the complimentary protices of himself in other papers—and notices of himself in other papers-and he has had a dozen or more such, written since his candidacy was announced. that are immensely flattering, and for which he is grateful to his brethren of the state press. He believes, however, that it would be the part of modesty to follow the injunction-"let another praise thee, and not thine own mouth; that to reproduce those complimentary notices in this paper would come dangerously near to using his "own mouth." For this reason he will not resort to the

He is trying his utmost to run his campaign on clean lines, working strictly in the interests of his own election, and speaking only good of his opponents.

He hopes to be able to complete the canvas in this manner. By following this method he feels that he will have nothing to regret in event of defeat, and much will be gained both for himsel and for the county of Putnam with hi

Gov. Gilchrist has issued a proclamation designating Sunday, May 8th, as Mother's Day, and recommends, that it be observed in all homes and churches by the people of the state. On this day it is the custom for everyone to wear a white carnation or white rose, emblematic of purity and love, and that each person pay some special attention to Mother, if she be living, or to her memory if she be dead.

Stimulant? Tonic or

There is an immense difference between a tonic and a stimulant. Up one day, way back the next; that's a stimulant. Steady progress day by day toward perfect health; that's a tonic. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic, a strong tonic. The only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Do not stimulate unless your doctor says so. He knows. Ask him. Do as he says. J.C. A Question of Color. Benjamin Constant when painting the portrait of Queen Victoria made the grand ribbon of the Garter, which was part of his fligstrious sitter's contume, a certain tone of bine. The queen criticised this part of the pic ture, but Constant stuck to his color. One day he received from Windsor & little purces containing the order of the Garter. The queen, fully convinced that she was right, had sent him the ribbon to prove his cour sense was wrong. She did not coufer the Garter upon him, however.

This contractor got results. Some years ago a contractor build-
